FPL Salah’s World Cup Fantasy Round of 32 team and transfers

As we have unlimited transfers for Matchday 4, I will be picking another effective Wildcard team and using my Qualification Booster.

FPL Salah’s World Cup Fantasy Booster Strategy

My rough chip or booster plan is as follows:

Matchday 4 (Round of 32) – Qualification Booster

Matchday 5 (Round of 16) – Clean Sheet Shield

I will save my Max Captain for the quarter-finals onwards, more than likely the semi-final or final.

FPL Salah’s Matchday 4 Wildcard Team

This is my current draft with Qualification Booster active.

All of my defence has over 49% clean sheet odds and I have some good-value defenders in there such as Sergino Dest ($4.3m) who is highly attacking and has a great fixture against Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Argentina defence is also great value and have the highest clean sheet odds for the Round of 32.

I still might go for a France defender over Joshua Kimmich ($5.5m) as both Germany and France have a good fixture this week but are likely to play each other in the Round of 16 – and France are the favourites to win the tournament.

Ousmane Dembele ($10.0m), Lamine Yamal ($10.0m) and Vinicius Junior ($10.0m) are pretty much nailed due to their premium quality and good fixtures.

Johan Manzambi ($5.6m) and Christian Pulisic ($7.0m) have good fixtures also and are currently below 5% owned.

Switzerland look to have a decent path – if they beat Algeria they play either Colombia or Ghana in the Round of 16. They have at least avoided the big favourites for the next two rounds at least.

The front line of Kylian Mbappe ($10.5m), Harry Kane ($10.5m) and Lionel Messi ($10.0m) speaks for itself.

They're probably the best three forwards in the game, all have fine fixtures this matchday and are expected to progress deep into the competition.

Disclaimer

There’s always a small chance I make a late change or two very close to the deadline, and won’t have time to update the article. This could be due to a number of factors, including late injury updates or early team news for example. However, this is likely to be a very rare occurrence.

As ever, my final team will be posted on my X page before the deadline.
